
Function:	Working Student – Investment Management, Private Equity
Entry level:	Part-time Working Student
Location:	Zurich, Switzerland

Mill Reef Capital is a Zurich-based private equity secondaries investor specializing in opportunities in the smaller, non-traditional secondaries market. Founded in 2019, the firm has grown rapidly and manages commitments exceeding EUR 700m. We are looking for a part-time working student to support our ambitious and entrepreneurial investment team.

Your tasks:

- Assist with company valuation, including comparable company analysis.
- Maintain databases of comparable transactions.
- Support due diligence processes, including market research and data analysis.

Your profile:

- Currently studying finance, accounting, or a related field, with completed Bachelor's degree.
- Previous corporate finance experience.
- Solid understanding of financial statements and valuation techniques.
- Proficient in Excel and PowerPoint; financial modeling experience is a plus.
- Analytical, detail-oriented, and highly motivated.
- Fluent in English; additional Western European languages are a plus.
- Eligible to work in Zurich, Switzerland.

What we offer:

- A dynamic, entrepreneurial work environment with experienced professionals.
- Hands-on experience in private equity.
- Flexible working hours to balance academic commitment (on average 40% position).
